ADMINISTRATION

Island Catholic Schools

SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION TIME

312

Rationale

he oard of irectors believes that to provide instructional leadership and supervision effectively within a school adequate administrative time is required Administrative time is time free from teaching and from any classroom responsibilities normally part of a teacher's work.

Policy

he oard of irectors recognizes that rincipals if they are to exercise effective instructional leadership and overall supervisory control within their school require sufficient time free from actual classroom instruction and its attendant responsibilities. he amount of administration time should be determined by the uperintendent of chools in consultation with the rincipal taking into consideration the size of the school plant the number of staff the number of students and programs offered within the school and the administrative organization of the school
