

---

As a result of the diverse nature of student needs and abilities, the Board of Directors supports the concept where finances permit, to provide guidance through counseling services at the High School level. When counseling is required at the elementary/middle school level, the Board of Directors encourages principals to direct parents to the appropriate agencies or individuals who provide counseling services.

The Board of Directors acknowledges the benefit of students receiving guidance through counseling service as the need arises.

Reference:	Approved
	Date Approved: December 1994
Cross-reference:	Date(s) Revised: January 2012